Big Fourth of July Program Arranged Here by Jaycees

Fourth of July activity in Washington C. H. will center on the Jaycee-sponsored festivities at the Community Park from 9 a. m. until midnight.

Starting about 9 a. m. when the four concession stands will open and continuing until the community dance is over at midnight the entire day is packed. Friday will be the first day the new combination refreshment stand and playground equipment storage building will be used.

Elsewhere in the city the banks, the Courthouse, City Hall and most stores will be closed for the holiday. Most of the downtown merchants will stay open Thursday afternoon to prepare for the Fourth. On Friday two drugstore and several neighborhood grocery stores will be open.

Family picnics will play a big part in the holiday observance, too. There are fireplaces and tables and benches under the trees at the north end of the park for this purpose—and they are expected to be in constant use both at noon and in the evening.

There are more picnic facilities in Washington Park, just across Oakland Ave., for those who hold memberships for the swimming pool.

The post office lobby will be open from 6 a. m. to 6 p. m. Friday, but there will be no regular delivery or window service.

Record-Herald employees will also have the day off.

ROBERT BOYD, general chairman, said Friday afternoon's activities at the park will start with games for children under 16 at 1:30 p. m. Later in the afternoon there will be a teenage hop on the basketball courts.

The fireworks will start at dusk.

Let's Put an End To This Nonsense

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—A loud explosion rocked the Albany area Tuesday, and an indignant woman telephoned the Times-Union to find out what happened.

A reporter said he thought a jet plane had broken the sound barrier.

"If that barrier keeps getting in everybody's way," she snapped "why don't they take it down?"

Lebanon Chief Fears Rebels Preparing for New Attack

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—President Camille Chamoun says Lebanese rebels under Syrian command may launch a strong attack on the port of Tripoli at any moment.

But if this attack and one from the area southeast of Beirut are "beaten completely, the armed rebellion will collapse as a military movement," the pro-Western President said.

He was interviewed Tuesday as government jet fighters, armored cars and artillery turned back an attack from the southeast toward the Beirut International Airport. Chamoun claimed this assault was part of an all-out attempt to capture Beirut and overthrow his government.

The President said Druze tribesmen under Socialist Kamal Jumblatt were trying to link up with rebels under former Premier Saeb dusk. After the fireworks that will last about an hour and a half, the regular Friday night community dance, sponsored this time by the Jaycees, is scheduled.

Boyd said the dance will include both round and square dancing. Concession Chairman Robert

Coast Guard Forces Yacht To Leave H-Bomb Test Area

HONOLULU (AP)—A pacifist anthropologist, abandoning his challenge to "sink me to take me," sailed out of the Pacific H-bomb test area today under arrest for violating Atomic Energy Commission regulations.

Under the escort of the Coast Guard cutter Planetree, Earle L. Reynolds, bespectacled, scholarly professor, steered his 50-foot yacht Phoenix toward the mid-Pacific atoll of Kwajalein.

The cutter halted the yacht Tuesday 65 miles inside the zone and forced it to leave the forbidden danger area. Coastguardsmen boarded the craft and arrested Reynolds, an outspoken foe of nuclear testing.

An official announcement said Reynolds sailed his craft into the prohibited area despite two warnings since Sunday.

Apparently no action was taken against the other four persons on the Phoenix—Reynolds's wife, Barbara; daughter Jessica, 14; son Tex, 19; and Nick Mikami, 35, a crew member from Hiroshima, Japan.

The announcement from the Pacific military headquarters here said Reynolds, 48, will be flown from Kwajalein to Honolulu to face charges of violating AEC regulations forbidding Americans to enter the Eniwetok testing grounds. The yacht is expected to reach Kwajalein in three days.

Before leaving Honolulu June 11, Reynolds said he regarded any interference on the high seas as an act of piracy. He added, "They will have to sink me to take me."

The skipper said he had the greatest respect and sympathy for the crew members of the ketch Golden Rule and "complete belief in the righteousness of their cause." Four men were convicted of contempt of court and jailed for attempting to sail the Golden Rule into the Eniwetok area in defiance of the federal court.

Reynolds formerly was associate professor of anthropology at Antioch College and chairman of the department of physical growth at Fels Research Institute for Study of Human Development, Yellow Springs, Ohio.

In 1951, Iowa-born Reynolds was asked by the National Academy of Sciences to go to Japan to study effects of atomic radiation on growth of Hiroshima children. He worked with the Atomic Bomb Casualty Commission in Hiroshima from 1951 to 1954.

Heat Wave To Continue

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
No general relief appeared in sight today from summer's first extended spell of warm and humid weather in most of the Eastern half of the country.

The high humidity and above normal temperatures extended across most areas east of the Rockies to the Atlantic Coast. The muggy weather resulted from a steady flow of warm moist air for the past several days from the Gulf of Mexico northward across the Eastern part of the country.

Little relief was reported during the night. At Burlington, Vt., and Lebanon, N.H., midnight temperatures were 79, two degrees higher than the normal daytime high for the two cities.

Readings in the middle to upper 70s were reported as far north as southern sections of Minnesota and Wisconsin and across the Great Lakes region except Lake Superior.

The hottest spots were in southwest Texas, with 109 at Presidio, and in the Southwest desert region with a mark of 111 at Gila Bend, Ariz.

Passenger Trains Collide In Station

ALEXANDRIA, Va. (AP)—A train letting off passengers was rammed from behind Tuesday by a second train pulling into Union Station. About 30 persons were hurt slightly or shaken up.

A Seaboard Air Line train was standing in the depot when it was struck by a Chesapeake & Ohio train. Both were northbound for Washington, across the Potomac River from Alexandria.

William W. Roberts, 73-year-old engineer of the C&O train, said the brakes failed. He estimated his speed at between 8 and 10 miles an hour at the time.

Lorain Still Seized

Five barrels of fermenting mash were in the middle room and the front room contained the bottling apparatus. No one was in the apartment.

Fear Consuls May Be Held By Kidnapers

Diplomats Vanish While on Mission To Castro Rebels

HAVANA, Cuba (AP)—Lack of word from two U.S. consuls who went into the hills of eastern Cuba to seek release of kidnapped North Americans aroused speculation today that Fidel Castro's rebels might be holding the diplomats also.

The U.S. Embassy in Havana had expected the consuls to return by Tuesday with some report on the 47 Americans and three Canadians seized by rebels in east Cuba since Thursday.

Park Wollam, consul at Santiago, was reported to have made contact with rebels near the town of Moa, where 12 engineers were kidnapped, after going into the hills Sunday morning.

Robert Wiecha, vice consul at Santiago, reportedly entered the back country around Guantanamo Bay Sunday afternoon to seek release of 30 servicemen from the U.S. naval station at Guantanamo.

The rebels also are holding two American managers of a nickel plant and two sugar mill executives, an American and a Canadian, picked up over the weekend, plus four American agricultural experts for United Fruit Co. seized on a raid Monday night.

More than 100 American families live in the Guantanamo Bay area. Roads there are being patrolled and curfews enforced in an effort to prevent further kidnappings.

During Castro's abortive offensive last April to overthrow President Fulgencio Batista, the American families were given refuge on Navy base. Its commander, Rear Adm. R. B. Ellis, said similar orders have not been issued so far but the base is ready to shelter the families if necessary.

GOP Hopes Congress Can Finish Aug. 2

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Styles Bridges (R-NH) said today Republicans would like to see Congress wind up its work and go home Aug. 2.

Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana acting Senate Democratic leader, said it might be possible to conclude the session at that time unless unexpected controversy crops up over some of the major legislation.

Bridges, who heads the Senate Republican policy committee, said that with the Alaska statehood bill out of the way, he does not believe there will be extended Senate debate on any remaining measure.

The Senate has yet to act upon reciprocal trade, defense reorganization, foreign aid appropriations, housing and major farm bills, among the major controversial pieces of legislation.

The House has ploughed through some of these but still faces the necessity of acting on a bill to replace the omnibus farm measure it killed recently. The House also may originate legislation which would increase Social Security benefits 10 per cent, in line with the pay raises given to government employees.

It probably will have to wrestle with the question of increasing the 280-billion-dollar debt limit, another measure which would have to originate in the House before the Senate could act upon it.

Bond Firms Show Keen Interest In Miami Trace School Issue

Bond buyers, some as far away as Seattle, Wash., are showing a keen—and early—interest in the $1,652,500 Miami Trace building bond issue which is scheduled to be sold July 10.

Mrs. Senath Thompson, Miami Trace board clerk, said Wednesday that she has received 31 mail inquiries and five telephone calls regarding the bonds which were voted in November of 1956 for the construction of a new Miami Trace high school at Eber and for improvement of existing buildings.

The bonds were advertised for sale after the Ohio Supreme Court dismissed the board's mandamus suit and freed the district from litigation. Bids are to be opened at

Ike Says Russia Disrupts Plans For Summit Parley

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today accused the Soviet Union of having disrupted diplomatic preparations for a summit conference. He said this "cannot but cast doubt" on Soviet intentions toward a top-level meeting.

His accusation was in a letter to Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev. The communication paralleled similar messages from leaders of Britain and France.

The Western officials told the Soviet leader:

1. They consider a summit meeting desirable if it would provide an opportunity for serious East-West discussion of major problems and for reaching important agreements.

2. Charges by Khrushchev that the Western powers are trying to prevent a summit meeting by proposing unacceptable issues, are unwarranted. Khrushchev made such charges in letters June 11.

The White House made public Eisenhower's letter. Earlier dispatches from Moscow had reported that U.S., British and French messages had been delivered to the Foreign Office by the embassies of the three Western powers.

Khrushchev's June 11 letter provided the basis for Eisenhower's charge that the Soviet government had broken up diplomatic negotiations on a summit conference. Prior to June 11 those preparations had been under way in Moscow for more than a month.

Eisenhower said the Soviet government is apparently unwilling to negotiate seriously on concrete points at issue. He added that in spite of this, the Western powers do not propose to abandon hope or to relax their efforts to seek solutions of the major outstanding problems.

"If the Soviet government is equally serious in pursuing this goal," Eisenhower said, "it will accept the procedural proposal put forward by the Western powers or advance some equally effective and workable alternative."

The procedural proposal was that in meetings between Western ambassadors and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko, both sides should have the right to bring up and discuss anything without either side having a veto.

This would permit the Western powers to bring up such issues as Eastern Europe and German unification, to which the Soviet Union violently objects; while the Soviet government would be able to press propositions which the West has frowned on, such as an East-West nonaggression pact.

Khrushchev's letter included a review of proposals the Soviet Union had made for summit conference discussion. The Western powers contended that violated an understanding that the proceedings would be kept quiet.

Rape-Slayer Dies In Electric Chair

MOUNDSVILLE, W. Va. (AP)—Larry Paul Fudge of Huntington, a prayer on his lips, went to his death Tuesday night in the West Virginia Penitentiary electric chair.

Fudge was sentenced to death for the rape-slaying of Mrs. Inez Booth of Huntington, 51-year-old wife of a former city councilman.

He had grown up with the victim's two sons. He was an honor student in high school. Somewhere along the way he made a wrong turn, spent five years in a federal prison for extortion. The slaying occurred last Jan. 4, soon after he was released from prison.

Fudge awaited death calmly and resolutely during the day. A final plea to Gov. Cecil H. Underwood for commutation failed.

Judge Suspension Upheld by Court

COLUMBUS (AP)—The Ohio Supreme Court today refused to reconsider its indefinite suspension of Municipal Judge Frank R. Franko of Youngstown from the practice of law for misconduct.

The high court acted last May 28 on the suspension recommended by the state Board of Commissioners on Grievances and Discipline. The Mahoning County Bar Assn. filed the misconduct charges.

Franko was accused of voiding traffic tickets issued against him and of misusing his position as a judge in an unsuccessful campaign for county prosecutor in 1956.

Accuser Accused Of Telling Lies

Ike Won't Say Whether He Plans To Keep Aide

WASHINGTON (AP)—A lawyer for Bernard Goldfine said today Goldfine charged off as a business expense hotel bills paid for Sherman Adams and the cost of an expensive Oriental rug which Adams has testified was a loan.

Goldfine and Adams have pictured Goldfine's favors as those of friendship. They denied under oath that Adams pulled federal strings for Goldfine.

But if the favors are shown to have been written off as business expenses for tax purposes, the subcommittee members said, then that will show that Goldfine meant to get a business value in return.

The hearing itself was pretty much a plodding affair—given over to Goldfine's reading away at his statement. He didn't finish it before the committee recessed for the day.

The 67-year-old Boston industrialist, long-time friend and patron of Adams, branded as lies charges that Adams swung federal favors to him.

His hospitality and gifts to Adams, President Eisenhower's principal assistant, were not intended and did not result in special favors from government agencies for his business interests, Goldfine said, and asked:

"Why doesn't somebody write about the things Gov. Adams gave to my family over the years?"

Even as Goldfine was testifying, reporters sought to learn from President Eisenhower whether he is reconsidering his decision to keep Adams as his No. 1 aide.

Eisenhower refused to say. But, in response to questions Eisenhower told his news conference the statement he made two weeks ago in which he said he needs Adams expressed his conviction at that time.

Goldfine came before a House investigating committee with a long prepared statement denying any wrongdoing and hurling a charge that embraced many Congress members that:

"ALL THESE expressions of horror about what I asked Mr. Adams to do and what he did are hypocrisy."

And he pictured fellow Boston millionaire John Fox, his principal accuser, as a sick man who has told many lies "and will tell many more I am sure."

Goldfine spoke in testimony prepared for a climactic appearance before the House subcommittee whose hearings have rocked Washington and set off political storm.

A film of Goldfine reading a small portion of his statement also was shown on television (NBC) today two hours before he was to testify. He read in a slow, measured fashion.

Goldfine arrived three minutes early for the hearing. The spacious room was jammed.

The hallway outside the room was crowded with those hoping to get in.

Goldfine walked stiffly and slowly up the building steps. He marched into the room with a family escort.

The Russian-born poor boy, now a textile and real estate mogul, is the third star figure in the inquiry. Subcommittee chairman Owen Harris (D-Ark) and other subcommittee members served notice the 67-year-old Goldfine was in for stiff grilling, under oath.

House investigators wanted par county prosecutor in 1956.

Ohioan To Face Senate Probers

WASHINGTON (AP)—New York mobster Vito Genovese and Cleveland businessman John Scallish were summoned today by Senate investigators trying to find out about an alleged gangland conference in upstate New York.

The committee counsel said Scallish, head of the Buckeye Cigarette Co. of Cleveland, was in trouble with the law back in the 1930s. His record since then is clear.

The committee is exploring what it says is a nationwide conspiracy by Mafia criminals to seize power in the business world and labor unions, and to establish fronts for extortion and other rackets.

The hearings so far have pivoted about an alleged crime syndicate meeting last November at Apalachin, N. Y.

Genovese and Scallish were among 58 persons the police rounded up after a raid on the meeting.

State Board Eyes Sale of Horse

COLUMBUS (AP)—The Ohio Racing Commission today decided to call a horse trainer in for a hearing on an accusation that he sold a horse without the owner's permission.

The trainer is William C. Jones of Cuyahoga Falls. The owner of Short Time, Edward Graves of Medina, said the horse was sold to R. Bricker of Washington C. H. without his permission.

The commission was told that Bricker has decided to go along with the commission's decision on who actually owns the horse now.

The commission was told the horse has won several races and Bricker is willing to turn the purses over to Graves if the commission decides the horse was sold illegally.

Prisoner Tried In Straightjacket

XENIA (AP)—Manslaughter trial of Roger Leib, 47, of Springfield, was halted Tuesday and he was committed to Lima State Hospital for 30 days observation to determine if he is sane.

The sanity of the defendant was questioned when Leib, who went on trial Monday in the April 11 death of Mrs. Vera M. Gibbs, 28, also of Springfield, refused to return to the courtroom after the noon recess. Leib was eventually brought back in a strait jacket.

County Coroner Hugh C. Schick ruled that Mrs. Gibbs, beaten, thrown from a car and hit by another auto, was dead before she was struck by the car. When arrested, Leib admitted he had beaten the woman and thrown her into a ditch.

Lions Told about Guam At Tuesday Meeting

After plans for the sale of race programs at the Fair here had been outlined and two members welcomed at Tuesday night's meeting of the Washington C. H. Lions Club, the members were given a first-hand description of the island of Guam, where John Trace, former principal of the high school here, is now the director of education.

Tom Mark, the vice president, conducted the meeting in the absence of the president, Ray French.

Goldfine Denies

ticularly to know whether Goldfine charged off his favors to Adams as business expenses. Their advance information was that Goldfine did.

AND IF SO, some congressmen contend, that proves the gifts were not just tokens of friendship as Adams said — but favors Goldfine plied with the purpose of getting something of value to his business in return.

Making a point of wearing one of two gold watches he said Adams had given him, Goldfine issued blanket denials plus specific argument against a few of the actions raised in the inquiry. He said generally on:

Gifts to Adams:
"He (Adams) has testified about certain hotel bills and a coat, and a rug which I lent to him as a result of a friendship of long standing. I have read his testimony as to these things and it is correct. . . I am really dumbfounded that this habit of mine has hurt other people in high places."

Adams influence for Goldfine:
"I never asked Gov. Adams (onetime governor of New Hampshire) to do anything out of line, and he never did anything for me that was out of line."

"I think you know Gov. Adams is not that kind of a man. And neither am I."

Favored treatment from the Federal Trade and Securities and Exchange commissions:

"The record will show they gave me just as hard and rough a time as they ever gave anybody else. . . If SEC action constitutes preferred treatment, I hope I never get any more of the same."

"I think these attacks are unfair. . . charge that all these expressions of horror about what I asked Mr. Adams to do and what he did are hypocrisy."

"The lawyer for the subcommittee tried in every way to twist (FTC-SEC) testimony to try to show some special treatment to Goldfine. And with all this squeezing of this dry orange, he never got a drop."

Army to Lease Plants In 3 Ohio Cities

WASHINGTON (AP)—If the Senate armed services committee approves, the Army will lease industrial facilities in three Ohio cities. They are Lima Ordnance Steel Foundry, Ravenna Arsenal at Apco in Portage County, and Ridgewood Ordnance Plant in Cincinnati.

The House armed services committee approved the Army proposals Tuesday.

Largest atoll in the Pacific is Christmas Island, south of Hawaii. It was discovered on Christmas Eve, 1777, by Captain Cook.

Gillen; Thursday — Bill Schlue, Friday — Walter Rettig and Saturday — Wayne Bower.

Robert Minshall, chairman of the program committee, announced that the next meeting, on July 15, will be a family picnic at the Fayette County Fish and Game Assn. lodge near Buena Vista. Carl Wilt, an active member of the association, offered the use of the recreation area on Rattlesnake Creek for the picnic.

FRANK KNOWER, professor of speech at Ohio State University, who told the Lions about Guam, illustrated his talk with more than 200 colored slides.

Professor Knower, who had spent the first three months of this year on Guam as a consultant to the Territorial College of Guam, pointed out that most people know very little about the tiny island in the Pacific, although it is owned by the United States.

Less than half the size of Fayette County — 30 miles long and seven miles wide — he described it as "one of the most important of the U. S. military bases in the Pacific."

"Probably one of the reasons the island is so little known," Professor Knower said, "is that strict security regulations prohibit tourist trade. Most of the native population about 35,000 is employed in our military operations. The people have become highly Americanized over the years due to the influence of U. S. military personnel stationed there."

"Guam has a tropical climate," he said, "and is modern in every respect, with an excellent school system, a daily newspaper, 'Guam Daily News' with a circulation of 12,000, modern cars, and a radio-TV station serving about 5,000 television sets and 2,500 radios. The school system includes 60 elementary, one high school and one accredited college."

PROFESSOR Knower pointed out that the island is virtually self-sustaining in that it is not considered as being subsidized by the U. S. Local taxes are heavy, with the major portion imposed to support educational facilities. Due to the climate and scarcity of agricultural lands, nearly 85 per cent of Guam's food and domestic requirements are imported.

"Since the natives (of Malayan descent) want to live and prosper like Americans," he said, "they are rapidly seeking higher education, which actually presents a situation detrimental to the island's future. Many come to the states for their college training and since they are U. S. citizens, take up residence here and do not return to Guam."

Asked about any possible change in the government control system in the future, Professor Knower said: "There is no plan for a change, although the rumor that if and when Hawaii is granted statehood, Guam will become a county of the State of Hawaii; is gaining strength."

Escapees Caught, One Is Wounded

EAST LIVERPOOL (AP)—Two men who escaped from a mental hospital near Pittsburgh were captured by Ohio highway patrolmen today.

Herbert Trowbridge, 20, of Baden, Pa., was taken to City Hospital here with a rifle bullet wound in the lower abdomen. The other fugitive, Edward Slifka, 42, of Aliquippa, Pa., was held in Columbiana County Jail at nearby Lisbon.

The patrol reported Trowbridge was armed, but neither fugitive had a weapon when captured a mile north of Salineville.

The men forced Paul Henning, 24, of Pittsburgh, to drive them to an outdoor theater. They beat him up there, threw him out and drove off in his car. A few miles away they ditched the car and were hitchhiking when Ohio police joined the search.

O'Neill Thanks Ohio's Farmers For Billboard Aid

COLUMBUS (AP)—Farm leaders from all sections of the state meeting here today to discuss rural problems, got thanks from Gov. C. William O'Neill for supporting the highway billboard ban.

The governor spoke to more than 150 county Farm Bureau presidents and other officials here for the third annual President's Conference.

The governor said "the real reason that liquor interests rejected billboards on Ohio's 1,500 miles of super highways was that if farmers won in declaring billboards a nuisance, then farmers might decide to declare roadside honky-tonks nuisances by the same philosophy of this bill."

Locks Dedicated Honoring Ike, Snell

MASSENA, N. Y. (AP)—St. Lawrence Seaway locks were dedicated today in honor of President Eisenhower and former House Republican leader Bertrand H. Snell, whose names the passageways bear.

The Eisenhower and Snell locks control the ends of the Long Sault Canal, which will carry shipping past the St. Lawrence power project and the Long Sault Dam.

New Purge On In Red China

Diplomats' Servants Arrested in Peiping

LONDON (AP)—Britain disclosed today that Red China has clamped new restrictions on diplomats in Peiping and has arrested a number of Chinese servants working for foreign diplomatic missions.

Inform-d government sources expressed the view that a widespread political purge is under way.

A Foreign Office spokesman said that under new regulations, the Chinese had cut the distance foreign diplomats are free to travel outside Peiping without a pass to 12 miles. The old limit was 35 miles.

Britain applies a similar 35-mile limit on the movement of Red Chinese and other Communist diplomats in this country. The spokesman said no request from a Chinese official wishing to go beyond that limit has yet been turned down.

British authorities say they do not know the reason for the arrest of Chinese servants working for foreign missions in Peiping.

Stocks Move Irregularly; Trading Slack

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market moved irregularly early this afternoon as trading slackened. Leading issues showed gains or losses running from fractions to about a point.

The mixed tone prevailed since the opening as the market found the going tough. Prices bumped close to the 1958 peak reached in mid-June.

Aircrafts, steels and rubbers showed plus signs. Selected gainers appeared among oils, nonferrous metals and utilities.

Trading in Humble Oil was suspended temporarily on the American Stock Exchange following news that Standard Oil (New Jersey) was contemplating making an offer of about five shares of Jersey for four shares of Humble. The latter rose 2 1/4 points. Jersey dropped more than a point.

Union Oil of California eased at the start, steadied and showed a small net gain. American Viscose was up a good fraction. Alaska Juneau continued active and fractionally higher. Goodrich was a 2-point gainer.

Most coppers were higher. Phelps Dodge rose a good fraction. Kennecott, Magma and Revere were up around a point each.

U.S. Gypsum was down about a point. Smaller losses were taken by Chrysler, International Harvester, American Smelting, Union Carbide, American Tobacco, General Electric, Illinois Central and Ohio Oil.

U.S. government bonds retreated with the widest losses shown by long-range issues.

Court Quiets Title to Alley Section

Finding that three 70-foot sections of an alleyway lying between Oakland and Vandeman Aves. in Millwood have not been open for public use and have been in the uninterrupted possession of abutting property owners for more than 21 years, Judge John P. Case has granted a petition for quieting title to the land in question.

The opinion followed hearing of an action brought by Luther E. and Lottie Sexton, Robert S. and Helene Sanderson and Donald E. and Betty J. Wood against John D. Carr et al., asking that Carr be enjoined from trespassing on the originally platted alleyway or interfering with the plaintiffs' possession.

City Council, which on July 10, 1957, vacated that part of the alley behind the plaintiffs' homes, had previously refused Carr's petition to open the fenced in area for public use.

CARR, in asking that the court action be dismissed, declared that his lot, also bordering on the alley, as well as the plaintiffs' properties are in an area zoned for business and that full use of the alley is necessary in the operating of his business. He also claimed that the granting of the plaintiff's petition would be detrimental to the public interest.

Jack H. and Louise Persinger, also named parties defendant in the action, joined with the plaintiffs in asking that title to the plaintiffs' property be quieted.

Judge Case held that under Ohio law the plaintiffs had established their rights to the section of alley by continuous possession for a period of more than 21 years that the matter of how it was zoned was immaterial and that Carr knew or should have known when he acquired title to his property that portions of the alley were not open.

The court issued a perpetual injunction quieting title in favor of the plaintiffs and barring the defendants and the city from the right to use, control or occupy the land in question.

Eisenhowers Take Anniversary Cruise

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three generations of the Eisenhower family went on a Potomac River cruise Tuesday night to celebrate the 42nd wedding anniversary of the President and his wife.

The 3 hour and 40 minute ride was aboard the 90-foot presidential cabin cruiser Barbara Anne, named for one of President Eisenhower's granddaughters.

$500, and Jaycees promised "they will be bigger and better than ever before." Tice said the celebration has been planned in order that the community will have a "safe and sane Fourth."

The grounds will be patrolled by law enforcement officers and the State Patrol Auxiliary.

To be used Friday for the first time, the refreshments stand was built by the Jaycees as an improvement for the park. The stand can be used by other groups later with the approval of the park board.

Jack Lyons, chairman of the construction committee, estimated that more than 200 man hours and $600 worth of materials went into the building.

Seven employees from the Snyder Electric Co. donated an evening to wire the structure. J. A. Richardson, Jim Shadley, Harold C. Jender, E. O. Snyder, Charles Lauffer, Robert Palmer, Byron Palmer, Washington C. H., and Cliff Royce and Damon Clark of Greenfield were the employees. Darrell Williams of the Sever-Williams Co. also donated time to the construction.

WITH AN optimistic forecast, Tice predicted that attendance this year could better the 5,000 who showed up last year.

Luke Roberts, games chairman, said the contests for children up to 16 years will include a 20-yard dash, ball rolling relay, candy scramble, Siamese twin race, balloon battle royal, three-legged race, peanut race, sack relay, cracker-whistle relay, balloon bursting relay, tug-of-war, bag bursting relay, forward-backward race and the grand melee. Roberts also announced that watermelon eating and a chicken chase are planned.

Assisting Roberts with the games will be Jack Doyle, Jim Smith, Ray Morgan, Fred Domenico, Roger Grimm and Tom Vrettos.

Working with Chairman Boyd are Ray Anderson, teen-age hop; Jack Lyons, safety; Dr. William Lawyer, publicity; Frank Weade and Bob Willis, fireworks; Tice, concessions; and Roberts, games.

The Fayette County Fish and Game Assn. has planned a shotgun trap and target shot for the Fourth at its lodge near Buena Vista, with merchandise prizes for both the clay target trapshoot and fixed bullseye target shoot.

Drag racing classes run under National Hot Rod Assn. rules are scheduled for the Clinton County Air Force Base Friday with time trials at 9 a. m. and elimination races at 1 p. m., Lewis E. Rittenhouse, president of the sponsoring Twin County Timing Assn. has announced.

The state liquor store at 224 E. Court St. will be closed on the holiday.

Ohio Highway Land Buying Policy Aired

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Department of Highways has put in brown and buff—that's right, not black and white—exactly how it goes about buying land for highways.

Crossing Checked In Ross County

COLUMBUS (AP) — Utilities Commission inspectors are checking a Ross County railroad crossing where three 17-year-old youths lost their lives March 21.

The youths died after their car and a Baltimore & Ohio Railroad freight train collided at the crossing in the village of Vigo.

After the accident, the Ross County Safety Council Committee, the Southeastern Local School District and Rep. James G. Polk requested better crossing protection.

Tuesday the commission made a formal case of the matter and gave the railroad 15 days to answer the complaint.

The school district said six buses carry 360 students over the crossing every school day and asked that flasher lights be installed. At least two other persons have lost their lives at the crossing.

$0,000 pamphlets printed with brown ink on buff colored paper answering such questions as:

Who says we need better highways? How is the location of a new route determined? When can you learn the location of a project and voice your opinions on it? How does the state arrive at its money offer for land? What if only part of a piece of property is needed? What happens if the land owner turns down the state's offer? Can the land owner retain or salvage his buildings?

The pamphlets will be distributed at informal meetings with land owners and at public hearings and county fairs. They bear the endorsement of Gov. C. William O'Neill who writes:

"A democracy cannot grow without the right to acquire the lands it needs, but, at the same time it cannot exist unless the rights of every citizen are vigorously protected."

In most cases, three appraisers value the land needed for highway relocations. The property owner is offered the highest appraisal figure acceptable to the department and can point out facts he thinks were passed over by the appraisers. If he's not satisfied with the offer, he can go to court.

In the same pamphlet, Highway Director Charles M. Noble says, "We wish to emphasize that our right-of-way acquisition policy assures the property owner of a fair price for land without enriching him unduly at the expense of his fellow taxpayer."

The price is based on the market value of the property, Noble says.

Our Sick Railways Mean Much To Us Here

It is quite noticeable here in Washington C. H. and throughout Fayette County, and the same is true nearly all over the nation, the railways are not doing near the business they were enjoying some years ago. We do not even have passenger train service here any longer.

The busses, the motor cars and airplanes have taken a heavy toll in passenger business from the railways; also the huge trucks using our highways have cut in heavily on freight.

The situation has grown so serious that the most important legislation in the past two decades is proposed before Congress in response to danger signals flashing all over the nation's railroads.

The railways have been big tax payers in this country and they provide their own right - of - way. As an example right here at home, the B&O Railway alone in 1957 paid total taxes in this county amounting to $47,559 and of this amount over $30,000 went into our public school funds in city and county.

The recession has served to magnify the impact on railroads of several inequities long existing in government regulation, taxation and subsidization among various public carriers in the transportation field.

Some bills now before Congress seek to start public policies moving toward a correction of some of these defects and would help railroads solve their problems as private enterprises through which the public will benefit.

Practically nobody will offer an argument when you say that the well - being of our city and community depends heavily on the good or bad health of its businesses and industries.

Right now, the railroad business is sick. Because the railroads play an important role in our industrial scene, we know all too well that when this vital segment of our local economy is in poor health—as it has been with increasing frequency during the past quarter - century — all of us feel its fevers, aches and pains, one way or another.

Unless the Congress passes the remedial legislation it is now considering, our national transportation system will suffer the shattering loss of its free - enterprise, privately - owned and operated railroads — the last one in the world, incidentally. In its place, there will be a nationalized railroad system.

The United States tried nationalizing its railroads during World War I. It cost the taxpayers $1,000,000 a day. In World War II, the railroads operated themselves. They paid the taxpayers $1,000,000 a day. So we have a pretty fair idea of whether or not the idea would work.

However, this is more than a theoretical argument. This is a matter of our own welfare, right here in this area as well as elsewhere. If the railroads serving this community are left to wither on the vine and die, we and many other localities will be directly hurt.

Beyond doubt, the country needs a unified transportation policy to coordinate freight and passenger traffic by rail, on the waterways.

For not only is transportation essential in our peace-time existence; it is a basic requirement in our national defense.

As for the railroad industries alone, if they go under, they will drag many others with them, all to the detriment of our over - all economy.

"Some dirty crook stole our getaway car."

Diet and Health Many Things Cause Excess of Saliva

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M. D.

YOU'D be surprised how much saliva you can secrete under certain conditions. Normally, a healthy person secretes about two to three pints during a day.

Disturbances of the nervous system, local irritations, pregnancy, poisoning and other conditions, however, may stimulate the flow of saliva until as much as 10 quarts pours into your mouth during a 24-hour period.

Numerous Causes

The causes of excessive salivation are numerous. Some are of a very serious nature; others are due to a relatively minor irritation.

But whatever the cause, you should consult your doctor. The only way to cure the situation is to treat the underlying cause, and that is a job for a trained medical man.

Teething, jagged teeth or poorly fitted dentures can cause local irritation which will bring about hypersecretion of saliva. So will local inflammation from pyorrhea, stomatitis and anemia.

Diseases and Drugs

Infectious diseases, too, particularly rabies and smallpox, will stimulate secretion of saliva, as will certain drugs or poisons such as mercury, tobacco, bismuth and specific types of mushrooms.

Sometimes it can be attributed to reflex stimulation from the liver, ovary, uterus and stomach.

Disturbances of the nervous system—car sickness, migraine, hysteria and others—can also be responsible.

Warning Signal

Secretion of saliva in excessive amounts, therefore, should be regarded as a warning signal to see your physician. Generally, it indicates that something is wrong.

Too much saliva may "thicken" your speech and dull your taste of various foods. Swallowing all that saliva—and 10 quarts is a lot—may make you vomit or give you indigestion. While your doctor will treat the underlying cause, he might suggest certain oral hygiene practices that you can carry out at home.

Some Aids

He probably will recommend an alkaline mouthwash be used after every meal as a cleansing action. Or, if the gums are swollen, he might prescribe a mouth wash consisting of boric acid, tannic acid, honey of rose and water. But let your doctor prescribe it, don't try to mix it yourself.

If necessary, he might also give you penicillin and prescribe vitamins and various tonics or stimulants.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

A. C. M.: I have been told I will have twins next month. Can I breast-feed both babies? Answer: Yes, there should be no reason why you cannot breast-feed both babies. As a mother, you should.

The Nation Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—No matter how millionaire Bernard Goldfine testifies today, he has already given the impression of a man not prepared on his own to give simple and ready answers to direct questions.

This gift-giving friend of presidential assistant Sherman Adams has been heavily coached for days by his lawyers—and perhaps others—on how to handle himself before a congressional subcommittee.

This subcommittee is investigating the relations between Adams and Goldfine, a Boston industrialist, and the relationship of both with the Federal Trade Commission.

The fate of Adams will depend heavily on the testimony and performance of Goldfine and his willingness to answer questions. He distributed presents and favors to Adams and at least presents to other men in positions of political power.

Already many Republicans — mainly those running for election this year—have called on President Eisenhower to sack Adams, his No. 1 man in the White House and one upon whom Eisenhower leans more than any other in running the country.

Eisenhower himself has called Adams' relations with Goldfine imprudent. Adams, after gifts from Goldfine, got for him some information from the Federal Trade Commission, with which he was having trouble. A subcommittee lawyer says it was against the law to reveal the information, although the FTC chairman said most of it already was widely known.

Unless Goldfine shows a willingness to answer freely the subcommittee's questions, the critics of Adams will be in a position to demand more insistently than before that he go. And Eisenhower, although he said of Adams "I need him," might have to yield.

Goldfine's case, before he ever got near the witness chair, developed an almost comical complexion.

His lawyers were so afraid of letting him face newsmen's questions that they hovered around him when he arrived here Sunday like a bunch of beekeepers. They carried this so far they wouldn't even let him say he was glad to be here.

Leaves Ohio Post

CLEVELAND (AP) — Allan W. Sherman, since 1949 director of the Cleveland Society for the Blind, has resigned and will succeed Dr. Phillip S. Platt next Oct. 15 as director of the New York Assn. for the Blind, known as "The Lighthouse."

Pickets Held to Jury

CHARDON (AP)—Five pickets at the Johnson Plastics Co. were bound over to the Geauga County grand jury Tuesday, accused of shooting at two county sheriff's deputies.

Yet some of his lawyers themselves talked as much as Goldfine himself might have done if let alone. One of them in a burst of frankness told reporters his client would make a "terrible witness."

This was hardly flattering to the onetime poor immigrant who collected both a lot of money and a lot of political friends, or at least acquaintances.

Goldfine had a prepared statement to make to the subcommittee today.

But handing out a prepared statement, worked over by lawyers, is far different from answering directly and freely the questions fired at him by the subcommittee. It remained to be seen how much answering Goldfine would do.

The No. 1 question Goldfine faced was whether he deducted as a business expense from his income tax the gifts he gave Adams and the hotel bills he paid for him.

Adams told the same subcommittee everything Goldfine did for him—in the way of gifts and paid-for hotel bills—was the act of an old friend.

The gift-giving apparently was a pretty one-sided performance. Adams didn't report ever giving Goldfine much, and certainly nothing in proportion to the thousands he admitted Goldfine spent on him.

But if Goldfine deducted his expenses on Adams as a business expense, he was not considering his favors to Eisenhower's chief aide as a friendly thing. His expenses then could be interpreted as an investment to get favors from Adams.

Gout -- The Tie that Binds

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — Sidewalk scrawls of a Pavement Plato:

There is one simple recipe for world peace that has never been tried. That is, to give the leading statesmen of every nation the gout.

I think it's worth a try. The theory that an epidemic of gout among the great men of our time might lead to a warfree world isn't as idle as it sounds. There is some pretty solid reasoning behind it.

There is a bond between victims of the gout like unto no other bond in the world. It is stronger than the bonds of love, passion, matrimony, friendship, patriotism, or the desire for wealth.

Gout unites mankind as the common cold divides it. No enemy is possible between two men once each finds the other has gout. An invisible tie binds them indissolubly. They are knit forever by the knowledge they have survived a suffering beyond the ken of lesser men struck down by paltrier ailments.

War between statesmen who are afflicted with gout is inconceivable. Men who have known Armageddon in their big toe are not interested in fighting each other on battlefields. They'd rather meet in peace and discuss remedies. They have a vast and natural respect for one another.

They realize that anybody can get pneumonia, the deadliest of diseases, but it takes a guy with class to get gout.

Many an ignorant lout, jealous because he cannot acquire gout himself, laughs loudly at the most aristocratic of diseases. He decries it as a penalty for loose living. But he knows in his heart he could live like a bum on the Bowery for 1,000 years and never get gout himself. He doesn't have the character.

The truth is that gout, like money, is largely inherited. It runs in families. But what families! They have been the cream of every civilization. Anyone who looks up his family tree and can't find a few cases of gout among the limbs would do well to keep quiet about his ancestry. It may be, here and there, that someone, somehow did get gout as a price for galloping down the primrose path.

But, as the Encyclopedia Britannica sagely points out, the disease affects also persons "who observe the strictest temperance in living. And whose only excesses are in the direction of overwork, either physical or intellectual."

Naturally, this is the kind of gout that runs in families. Well, anyway, in my family.

Gout is one of the oldest, if not the oldest, of human diseases. There are two theories as to its origin.

One is that it is one of the penalties Adam paid for eating the forbidden fruit of knowledge.

The other theory is that Zeus originally decreed woman along should suffer the pangs of childbirth. His wife, Juno, objected: Honey, you're not being fair. You should divide pain equally between the sexes. If you're going to be a god, act like one!

And to keep peace in his household on Olympus, Zeus said:

"Okay, I'll give man the gout. That'll make them even."

By George Sokolsky

tenations, to quote Charles A. Beard, of historic forces now at work.

If last month our fate hung on Algeria, this week it hangs on Lebanon and next year, it may be Japan. The constant changes, the fluctuations of policy in some 88 countries affect our economy immediately and we are bound by the errors of our own past, particularly the error of frittering away our vast gold reserve which would now be of such enormous use to us. The startling condition is that West Germany is building up an enormous gold reserve. And Soviet Russia is pegging the Red Chinese currency to a gold rouble. How soon will it be before Soviet Russia issues a gold export, rouble?

If the world turns to gold, as it is likely to do in an effort to save itself from economic strangulation, the country with the most gold will be the center of the universe as England was for centuries.

Pay Tax Or Else

CINCINNATI (AP) — Cincinnati postal officials say post office workers who have not paid their city income tax will be first warned and then fired if they continue to dodge the tax. A post office spokesman said Tuesday that since the tax is not withheld in government pay checks, the workers must make his own arrangements to pay the one per cent levy on earnings.

Ohio Candidates Hit Trail Earlier For Their Campaigns

By REED SMITH
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio candidates are hitting the election campaign trail earlier than usual this year.

Democrats, scenting victory, appear eager to nail down non-presidential election year advantages often conceded to those out of office looking in.

Republicans, conceding nothing, are fighting for jobs that for the first time on the state level will be for four years.

Althea Gibson Is Lone Yank In Tourney

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — For the second consecutive year, the Wimbledon Tennis Tournament goes into the men's semi-finals with the entire U.S. delegation sitting on the sidelines.

And for the first time since the end of World War II, the United States has failed to place at least two entries in the penultimate round of the women's division.

Defending champion and the heavy favorite, Althea Gibson of New York, is the lone remaining Yank in this tournament that once was dominated by the Americans.

In the men's division, there remain three Australians (Ashley Cooper, Neale Fraser and Mervyn Rose) and one Dane (Kurt Nielsen). Besides Miss Gibson in the women's division, there are two Britons (Ann Haydon and Angela Mortimer) and one Hungarian (Mrs. Suzy Kormoczy).

Barry MacKay, who dropped a 6-2, 6-4, 6-4 decision to left-hander Rose Tuesday — his own doubles partner — took his reversal in good grace, and refused to use his blistered racket hand as an alibi.

Mrs. Margaret Du Pont of Wilmington, Del., who won the title back in 1947, and pint-sized Mimi Arnold, both were knocked out in the quarter-finals.

Mrs. Du Pont bowed to Miss Mortimer, 4-6, 6-3, 10-8.

Miss Arnold, the giant killer who licked Britain's second-seeded Christine Truman earlier, was a 6-1, 5-7, 8-6 victim of Mrs. Kormoczy, a slick player of 34.

and special session jitters, GOP Gov. C. William O'Neill got off to a fast start with a well attended picnic in Lebanon.

About 5,500 were served and party workers estimated 6,000 turned out for the affair last Friday at the Warren County Fairgrounds.

By coincidence, a statewide Democratic caravan will start from Lebanon next Tuesday. Some Democrats jokingly referred to the caravan as a "truth squad" to counter Republican claims.

The motorcade on July 15 will visit Chillicothe where O'Neill and other Republicans will appear on July 10 for the second in a series of picnics.

Both parties will warm up in rural areas and smaller cities summer for the final round next fall in vote-heavy population centers.

After the governor's picnics conclude in Findlay on Aug. 8, Republicans will form their own campaign caravan. If present plans work out, they will equip it with wings for a blitz by plane.

Democrats, who claim they are hurting for lack of funds, will depend on motorcades, for the most part, in the hope of greeting more voters.

They will concentrate on congressional districts. Starting with a breakfast in Lebanon's Golden Lamb Hostelry, they will go to Wilmington for a second breakfast, a coffee break in London, a bean dinner in Marysville, more coffee breaks in Bellefontaine and Urbana and dinners in Springfield and Xenia.

Michael V. DiSalle, making a second bid to upset O'Neill; Stephen M. Young, opposing Republican U.S. Sen. John W. Bricker, and other aspirants for state, district and local offices will be featured.

Half the speakers will address the Springfield dinner while the other half entertain in Xenia. They will trade speaking platforms during the evening to keep the shows going full blast.

That will be the pattern so far as possible throughout the congressional areas with a caravan wind-up at Warren in the 11th District.

O'Neill barely got to his first picnic in Lebanon. A dead lock the final day of the special session kept him at his desk working to save the billboard ban law that barely won legislative approval.

He cancelled a glass plant tour in Newark, a luncheon at nearby Granville and an appearance at a veterans' affair in Cincinnati earlier in the day. A private plane stood by in Columbus for about three hours before the governor could take off for Lebanon during an evening recess of the legislature.

Other candidates filled in until he appeared. O'Neill was back in Columbus within two hours.

Aides said the suspense only heightened interest at the Lebanon affair. They asserted that non affair.

So confident were Democrats of trouble for O'Neill that their state chairman, William Coleman, and an aide, made an unusual appearance at the opening. They conferred afterward with Democratic legislators on the house floor during a recess.

After it was all over, Coleman declined to evaluate the political effect of the session on the election campaigns until he had time to survey the situation.

Republicans were less reluctant. Their observations ranged from an assertion that O'Neill was "over the reelection hump" to more conservative estimates that he held his own by avoiding potential pitfalls.

Court News

APPEAL NOTICE FILED

Defendants in three cases filed by Clarence E. Wohltheter, Columbus, asking for partition of 221 acres of land adjoining the Fayette County Fairgrounds, have filed notice of appeal to the Ohio Supreme Court from a decision of the Second District Court of Appeals.

The appellate court had reversed a judgment of Common Pleas Court here in favor of the defendants. The three actions, two of them against Earl Leroy Scott et al. and one against Esther Scott Crone et al., had been tried together in the lower court.

At issue is the question of whether title to the property, once a part of a 280-acre tract owned by the late John B. McLean, passed by deed or by will. The lower court had ruled that Wohltheter could not inherit an interest in the lands through the will of his late wife, a granddaughter of McLean.

The appeal to the Ohio Supreme Court would be made on questions of law.

NEW TRIAL DENIED

A motion asking that a jury judgment be vacated and that he be granted a new trial, filed by Amos McCormick in his damage action against Morton S. Titus, has been overruled in Common Pleas Court.

McCormick, a Fayette County farmer, lost his suit for $103,000 in damages against Titus who the plaintiff alleged had inflicted serious bodily injury on him during an altercation. A jury returned a verdict for Titus after a trial in April.

Judge Ferd M. Bader, Cincinnati, presided over the trial by assignment.

DIVORCED ASKED

Patsy Darling, 1014 E. Temple St., has filed suit for divorce from Frank E. Darling in Common Pleas Court, charging neglect and cruelty.

The parties were married Nov. 21, 1954, in Mt. Sterling and have two minor children of whom the mother asks custody. She also asks alimony and court costs.

Judge John P. Case granted the plaintiff's request for an order restraining her husband from molesting her or the children.

DIVORCE GRANTED

Doris West has been granted a divorce from Given West in Common Pleas Court on grounds of neglect and cruelty. Custody of minor children was awarded to the plaintiff who also will receive the defendant's half interest in a property at 1620 Washington Ave. and household goods.

The defendant was ordered to pay $20 per week for support.

ACTION DISMISSED

The divorce action brought by Mary Louise Underwood against Roy C. Underwood has been dismissed in Common Pleas Court with costs assessed against the plaintiff.

Insurance premiums paid by motor vehicle owners in the United States exceed three billion, 600 million dollars annually.

U. S. Golf Prestige Low In England

ST. ANNE'S-ON-SEA, England (AP) — American influence in the British Open golf championship today is at its lowest point in 40 years.

Some three or four decades back, Americans were the big winners in the hallowed tournament once considered the last word in international golf competition.

There was Bobby Jones, for example, who won the championship in 1926 — when the first four finishers were American — 1927 and 1929.

And they're still talking at St. Anne's of Walter Hagen, the flamboyant winner in 1922, 1924, 1928 and 1929.

The last U.S. winner was Ben Hogan, who brought tremendous control to bear to win a nip and tuck battle in 1953.

Then there is Gene Sarazen, the 1932 winner — and the only American professional left in the 1958 tournament.

Carrying the flag with Sarazen, as the tournament proper got underway today after two days of qualifying rounds is a young Hillsboro, Tex., golfer on leave from Army duty in Germany.

He is Montie Bradley, who racked up an aggregate 148 that hit the qualifying score on the nose.

Why don't more Americans show up for the Open these days?

There seem to be two big reasons: money and timing.

The prize money of $14,000 can hardly attract U.S. golfers who have a chance at $25,000-$50,000 purses in domestic tournaments running at the same time as the British Open.

There is talk among officials at St. Anne's of scheduling the Open in autumn, when American golfers would be freer to consider. But so far it's just talk.

Round about Fayette County

By B. E. KELLEY

Gray squirrels and gray foxes are now more or less of a rarity in this county, while the fox squirrels and red foxes have increased in numbers and, apparently, literally have driven the gray species from their happy homes.

Gray squirrel formerly abounded in this area, and in fact throughout eastern United States. They were so numerous in the pioneer days that when they found food scarce in one area, they migrated by the tens of thousands to other areas where food was more abundant.

It was woe unto the farms in the path of the migrating hordes of the Eastern gray squirrels, for they literally stripped the crops and devoured the nuts.

It was necessary in the early days to kill off the hordes of gray squirrels in order to save the small acreage of grain. Organized hunts were held, and great numbers of the squirrels were slaughtered.

However, down through the years the gray squirrels continued to raid corn fields and cribs and destroy other grain.

Then, some 75 years ago the fox squirrels decided this was a good place to congregate. As a result they were soon driving their gray cousins out of the area by sheer brute strength and viciousness.

Gray squirrels now are found chiefly in the hill areas of the state.

Gray foxes formerly lived here in great numbers, and about the time the fox squirrels started multiplying here, the red foxes also invaded the area. Because of their greater size, they apparently forced the gray foxes to seek homes elsewhere. The larger foxes, like the larger fox squirrels, did not hesitate to kill their gray cousins.

Gray foxes den more frequently in hollow logs than in burrows, but the red fox nearly always prefers a home underground.

The history of the foxes and squirrels here apparently has followed the old rule in nature of the "survival of the fittest."

OTHER WET JUNE

While we think of June this year as being extremely wet and damaging to crops, if we turn back the pages to June 1928 we learn that during that month total rainfall was 9.4 inches which was the wettest June since 1902.

I do not recall any June since 1902 that had as much rain as fell during that year. In fact few months have ever had a greater rainfall than that.

March, 1913, during the memorable flood, had total precipitation several inches above that of June 1902. Most of it fell within a few days and caused the flood.

"LITTERBUG" DEFINED

It has remained for a sixth grader to give a good definition for the term "litterbug" which has been applied to the careless, thoughtless people who scatter their litter anywhere and everywhere without regard for themselves or others.

The sixth grader said:

"A litterbug is a messy, two-legged animal that travels around the country turning it into a dump and spoiling it for other people."

Stiff fines are provided for littering streets and highways, which is one way to stop such "bugs". It is recalled that Abraham Lincoln once said:

"I like to see a man proud of the place he lives in, and I like to see a man live in it so the place will be proud of him."

30 YEARS AGO

Alfred W. Smith and Joseph T. Robinson were picked by Democrats as presidential and vice presidential nominees.

Pierce-Arrow and Studebaker companies merged in a 160-million-dollar deal.

A suspect was arrested in the McLean blackmail attempt and was held to grand jury under $2,000 bond. Decoy package supposed to contain $3,500 demand by blackmailer vanished from a local store, supposedly while the suspect and a detective were in the store with lights turned off.

A swarm of bees took refuge between weatherboarding and plastering of Police Chief Jack Wolfe's home on W. Market St.

June rainfall was 9.4 inches, the greatest since 1902, and the heaviest rainfall recorded in any 24 hours during the month was 2.82 on June 4.

J. A. Lussier, of Massachusetts went over Niagara Falls in a huge rubber ball, and was rescued, safe but badly bruised, an hour later.

The Fish and Game Protective Assn. staged big picnic July 4 at Coffey's Park on Leesburg Rd.

L. R. Huchison, city, was present when a 53½ pound shovelhead catfish was taken from a trot line in Salt Creek near Richmondale in Ross County.

Hugh Rodgers, prominent farmer of near Good Hope, died at 82 years.

Sturgeon's Park near the former Sturgeon Mill on Paint Creek, six miles south of city, was a popular pleasure resort.

SUPER SPUTNIK IDEA — Jonathan Oruvitz, 12, reads in his home in New York's Kew Gardens as Washington satellite officialdom ponders his suggestion that the U. S. pool all its satellite programs and send one 4,630-pound satellite up with a live monkey aboard. Roy Johnson, Pentagon advanced research chief, receiving Jonathan's letter in Washington, said the idea had "all the elements of a workable system," but posed too many engineering problems. ## Appreciation Pay From Santa Claus

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (P)—State Police received a letter, postmarked Kittery, Me., which began: "I wish to express my sincere thanks and appreciation to the state trooper who so courageously assisted me on Highway 60 out of Huntington on Feb. 20."

The letter, containing no other details of the incident, was signed, "Uncle Joe Santa — J.W.B." Enclosed was a $5 bill for the "Santa Claus Fund." Because the State Police Department has no such fund, the money was deposited in the State Police Disability and Retirement Fund.

ANNANDALE, Va. (P)—Fairfax Inscoe, tearing down an old house vacant for a decade found two old chests containing about 200 English coins. ## Insufficient Postage Regulations Changed

Aunt Bess forgets to stamp the envelope with the anniversary check, it'll cost you a nickel besides the price of the stamp to buy it from Uncle Sam.

That's the specification of a new program designed by the Postoffice Department and detailed here by Postmaster Clark Wickensimer. The program which went into effect here Tuesday, spells out a new procedure for handling mail with insufficient postage.

Wickensimer said that, henceforth, mail with insufficient postage will not be returned to the sender unless the addressee refuses to accept it, and there is a return address.

And if the addressee does choose to accept the mail, he must pay the deficient postage plus a five-cent service charge. If he refuses it, the mail will be returned to the sender who must pay the deficient postage and service fee if he wants it delivered.

Previously, the department has attempted to send the mail back to the sender. Service charges have been assessed at the rate of one cent per ounce beyond the first, for which there is no charge.

The new procedure applies to any class of mail. If there is no return address, and the mail is refused by the addressee, first-class mail will go to the dead letter office and other mail will be disposed of according to present regulations.

40-Year Movie Career Topped By One Season With 'McCoys'

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Recently a visitor on a film set exclaimed: "Why, there's Grandpa McCoy! Imagine finding him making a movie!"

Later, Walter Brennan sighed: "Think of it—after three Oscars and 40 years in the picture business, I'm known for a character I did one season on television!"

Such are the vagaries of the new show business, and Walter isn't complaining. Far from it. Sixty-four this month, he's enjoying the biggest success of a long and distinguished career.

Right now, he is back at the job he knows best, making movies. He's playing an old coddler in "Rio Bravo," a Western with John Wayne, Dean Martin and Ricky Nelson.

For realism's sake, he has taken out his dental plates and is playing the old fellow with a gummy drawl. He also is unshaven.

"I wanted to get as far away from Grandpa McCoy as I could," he remarked. "And still, the visitors on the set always recognize me from the TV show."

As most Thursday night watchers know, Walter is the star of The Real McCoys. The show is about some transplanted mountain folks who get into a variety of funny escapades in their new home in California.

The show was roundly scored by the critics and proceeded to confound them by being one of the season's real successes in the audience ratings. I asked him how he accounted for this.

"I don't know," he replied, "ex-

4-H Club Activities

SCIZZORS WHIZZORS 4-H CLUB

Paula Slagle was elected to represent the club at its Health Girl and Reva Fackler as the outstanding 4-H club girl when the Scissors Whizzors 4-H club met at the Washington City Park recently. Other plans for the Fair were made.

Eight members answered roll call by telling what they plan to do at the Fair.

The regular reports were given by Carol Hyer.

Mrs. Hyer, the advisor, reminded the group that they would be judged July 2 at 3 p. m. at the Farm Bureau.

I was decided that the girls are start to work on posters and decorations for the fair booth, soon.

The meeting was closed with president Paula Slagle leading the group in the 4-H Club pledge and Pledge to the American flag.

Before the meeting, the group enjoyed an outdoor cookery breakfast of ham and hot cakes. They also enjoyed a cookout, broiled steaks, on Tuesday.

MENDERS AND BLENTERS

A demonstration by Sharon Huff and Shirley Parrett was given at the Thursday meeting of the Bloomingburg Menders and Blenders 4-H Club. They showed how to make a simple blouse, and included information on selecting good material.

Jo Ann Mossbarger opened the meeting with the Pledge of Allegiance. The 4-H Pledge was led by Sharon Huff. The roll was answered with each member's opinion of the hardest thing to do when giving a demonstration.

The following members were asked by Mrs. Lewis Parrett, the advisor, to present team demonstrations at the coming meeting: Patti Jo Merritt and Glenell Stultz, Belinda Binegar and Phyllis Locke, and Susie Welsh and Thelma Birchfield.

Refreshments were served to 17 members by Carol and Penny Noble and Alice Craig.

After the meeting a cook-out was held in the backyard of Mrs. Harold McConaughy's home. The outdoor fireplace here was used in cooking the meal. The third one of the six cook-outs the club is having.

The next cook-out will feature a breakfast meal. It will be held at 8 a. m. Thursday.

State Fiscal Year Balance $38 Million

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio went into its 1959 bookkeeping year Tuesday with an uncommitted cash balance of $38,156,763, one and a half times as much as the 25 million dollar balance predicted by Gov. C. William O'Neill before the final figures were tabulated.

Oldest Alumnus Dies

cept that it is funny and still honest."

Others might add that a guy named Walter Brennan has a lot to do with it. The guy has more tricks than a convention of magicians.

Though he often plays hillbillies and Crackers, Walter actually hails from Swampscott, Mass. When he's not doing a role, he talks with an "A" as broad as the Harvard Yahrd.

"When I'm in character, it doesn't show," he said. "But it can be pretty hard to get rid of at other times. I've been in the cattle business in Oregon for a long time, and I had to learn to order 'calves' instead of 'calves.' I kept getting cows instead."

Rotary Hears Report on Dallas Meet

Washington C. H. Rotarians heard a detailed report from Joseph W. Campbell, their newly installed president, Tuesday on the Rotary International convention held in Dallas, Tex., May 31—June 5.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell and their children, Joda and Joe Bill, were among the 16,000 attending the convention which emphasized international understanding.

Most of the 106 countries in which there are Rotary clubs were represented at the Dallas meeting, and Campbell sketched the color of the gathering and the hospitality offered by the Lone Star State which combines all-purpose air-conditioning with bigness.

CAMPBELL reported briefly on the long series of vocational conferences in which delegates from more countries than are represented in the United Nations participated; the entertainment (including Sophie Tucker), and the tours of Dallas and neighboring Fort Worth.

One bank which he visited, Campbell said, has a gold-leaved balcony and 1,100 employees, including four full-time gardeners who do nothing but care for interior and exterior landscaping.

During the convention, the Campbells were guests at a buffet supper in one of the majestic suburban Dallas homes.

GUESTS at Tuesday's luncheon meeting at the Country Club were G. D. Farquhar, former Rotarian; Larry Neeley, Pat Eflaw and Fritz Prosch, all of Washington C. H., and Jimmy McDouald, Dayton, with his grandfather Dr. E. H. McDouald.

John Moore, London, was a Rotarian guest.

Birthday greetings were sung for Arthur Finley.

Boston's Williams, Jensen Boom-Boom Boys of Moment

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer
It's been Mantle and Berra for the New York Yankees; Kaline and Kuenn for Detroit. But Boston has the Boom-Boom boys of the moment, with Ted Williams and Jackie Jensen crashing nine homers and driving in 20 runs between them in the Red Sox' last five games.

The Big Guy and Jensen, who is closing in on his best slugging season in the majors after taking the American League home run lead with 14 in June, each smacked two-run shots that powered the Red Sox to a 10-5 victory over Washington Tuesday night.

It was Jensen's 24th of the year, two shy of his 1955 high of 26, and fifth in four games for a total of 11 RBI. Williams, the most enduring 39-year-old since Jack Benny went square and turned 40, hammered his 12th home run, added two singles and picked up a third RBI as the Red Sox won their third in a row with a 4-1 record.

That put third place Boston within nine games of the leading Yankees, who split a two-night pair at Baltimore, winning 2-1 after a 7-5 loss. Kansas City stayed a half game ahead of Boston with a 5-1 victory at Detroit. Chicago defeated Cleveland 5-4 in 11 innings after the Indians had chased White Sox ace Billy Pierce.

In the National League, Milwaukee regained a 3 1/2-game lead, beating Cincinnati 1-0 on Lew Burdette's eight-hitter while Los Angeles knocked off second place St. Louis 9-3 and the Chicago Cubs whipped third place San Francisco 9-5. Philadelphia beat Pittsburgh 4-2.

Williams, the defending AL bat champ, busted past 300 for the first time this season, hitting .308, while wallowing his 400-foot homer in a three-run third inning against loser Hal Griggs (3-5). Jensen smacked his in a three-run sixth off Chuck Stobbs for his 1,000th hit in nine major league seasons.

Reformed reliever Ike Delock won his 10th in a row, sixth of the year, with an eight-hitter, one Norm Zauchin's eighth homer. Bad Boy Billy Loes, who had lost seven straight, won his first in relief when Baltimore overhauled a Yankee lead with five in the fifth. Billy Gardner's three-run triple capped it against losing reliever Duke Maas (4-7). Don Larsen (7-1) homered for a 1-1 tie, then won the nightcap on Mickey Mantle's 16th home run, second of the night, in the eighth inning off Jack Harshman (6-7). Gene Woodling, 5-for-8 in the pair, homered for the Birds.

Bob Cerv's 21st home run got the A's started and they clinched Ned Garver's eighth victory, first in a month, in the sixth on two-run singles by Hector Lopez and Harry Chitt. Frank Lary lost his sixth. Garver allowed only five hits, three by Ozzie Virgil, and lost his shutout in the eighth on Bob Hazle's first AL home run.

Sherm Lollar, whose three-run homer gave Chicago a 4-0 lead in the sixth, singled home the winner off losing reliever Mucut Grant (6-5). Pierce, who had a stretched his shutout string to 33 innings—longest in the majors this year—before the Tribe scored an unearned run in the seventh. Lary Doby, late of the Sox, tied it with a pinch-hit, three-run homer in the eighth off Jerry Staley. Early Wynn (8-6) won it.

Are the Milwaukee Braves back in the groove now that they've managed to beat Los Angeles? Or is that 3 1/2-game National League lead only a momentary margin while they have their hands on the Cincinnati Reds, their favorite pasties?

Either way, nobody but the champs has been that far ahead, and the Braves made it for only the second time on a shutout by Lew Burdette and a home run by Eddie Mathews that beat Cincinnati 1-0 Tuesday night. That gave Milwaukee a four-game streak since ending a nine-game losing streak with two victories last weekend.

Burdette gave up eight singles, walked but one and struck out two.

Rookie Norm Larker hit a pair of home runs, his first in the majors, also doubled and drove in four runs for the Dodgers, who had lost three in a row. Jim Brosnan (7-6) lost it while southpaw Sandy Koufax (7-3) won his fourth in a row.

Young Moe Drabowsky (7-7) won his third in a row for the Cubs, although needing relief. Rookie Tony Taylor and Ernie Banks each rapped a pair of solo homers for the Cubs, who chased Johnny Antonelli (8-6) in the second and jumped past Cincinnati into fourth place. Daryl Spencer, Willie Maye, Ray Jablonski and Bob Schmidt homered for the Giants.

Harry Anderson drove in three runs with his 10th homer and a single for the Phils, who moved to sixth place as the Pirates hit seventh in a 10-day skid from third. Rookie Ray Sempach won his ninth with an eight-hitter. Bob Friend (9-9) lost his fifth in a row. R. G. Smith, Bob Porterfield and Elroy Face pitched perfect relief over the last 6 2-3 innings.

Quintupleheader Set for Friday In Little Loop

There'll be no shortage of Little League baseball on the Fourth of July—but this year, it definitely won't interfere with the fireworks.

Three major league games have been scheduled for Wilson Field, and two contests in the minors have been set for Armbrust. The latest game will start at 7 p. m. sc the boys and the fans will have a chance to get over to the community park in time for the fireworks show.

The Flashes will play the Cow-boys in a 7 p. m. game under the lights at Wilson Field. The Cubs will play the Cardinals at 5 p. m., and the Realtors and the Jets will meet at 3 p. m.

A minor league game originally scheduled for Wilson Field, between the Loafers and the Elks, will be played at 4 p. m. at Armbrust Field. The regularly-scheduled Armbrust Field game, between the FOPA and the Rockets, will get underway at 6 p. m.

Giardello Asks Decision Change

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—"It is our feeling that an honest mistake was made . . . further, the very noticeable reaction of the fans who saw the match was additional confirmation that Giardello was really the winner.

"We therefore petition your honorable commission to rectify this mistake by a reversal of the decision."

These legalistic words went Tuesday from Joey Giardello and his manager Tony Ferrente to the California Athletic Commission.

Joey Giambra won a split decision over Giardello in a Cow Palace 10-rounder Monday.

Giardello and his manager contended the adverse call knocked the former No. 2 middleweight contender out of a title match with Sugar Ray Robinson. Giardello is now No. 3, and Gene Fulmer is No. 2.

Bouchee Back With Phillies

Suspension Lifted By Commissioner

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Ed Bouchee, Philadelphia Phillies first baseman, who was restored to baseball by Commissioner Ford Frick, joins his teammates here today.

He will start against the Braves in Milwaukee Thursday.

The four-game Milwaukee series may prove the testing ground for Bouchee's comeback in the game he says will provide the best therapy of all.

"This was a medical case," said Phillies Manager Mayo Smith said. "Bouchee is evidently cured and we are happy to have him back. I'll start him at first base Thursday at Milwaukee. He has been working out regularly in Philadelphia and probably will give our club a lift."

Under indefinite suspension since he pleaded guilty to a morals charge in Spokane, Wash., Feb. 20, the 25-year-old Bouchee was given another chance when Frick, at a news conference in New York, announced the reinstatement.

"It was the only decision I could live with," Frick said.

"I have made an exhaustive study of all the evidence, and I am convinced that Bouchee is completely cured. All the doctors and the probation officers who have been assigned to this case have recommended his return to baseball. I am assuring sole and complete responsibility."

A little over three months after the offense, Bouchee was placed on three years probation by a judge in Spokane. A psychiatrist testified that he suffered from compulsive exhibitionism, an aberration resulting from emotional illness. His offense was indecent exposure involving two young girls.

Bouchee has been working out at Connie Mack Stadium in Philadelphia, since June 4 after undergoing psychiatric treatment for three months at the Institute for Living in Hartford, Conn.

"I'll be happy to be back with the boys," Bouchee said upon hearing the news. "No one can know how happy."

Favor Classrate At River Downs

CINCINNATI (AP)—Classrate, aiming for the fourth victory of the meeting, is top-rated to capture the featured Kentucky Day Purse at River Downs today.

But Mon Far was given top weight of 119 pounds among eight three-year-olds nominated for the six furlong race.

In Tuesday's featured seventh race, Defrost was rated 11-1, but he covered the seven furlongs on the turf in 1:26 1-5 to win and beat out the favorite, Varus.

The five-year-old gelding returned $24.80, $6.80 and $5.20 to mutual bettors while Varus was worth $3.80 and $3.60 and Flushing Some, $8.

Cummings Hit Brings Team From Behind

Timmy Cummings, pinch-hitting in the bottom of the fifth for the Record-Herald Flashes, pasted a free-wheeling double that scored two runs and gave the Flashes an upset victory over the high-riding Mac Dews Realtors at Wilson Field Monday.

The Flashes, behind 7-1 just an inning earlier, ended the night with a 9-8 margin. Billy Marting, who collected a home run and a single, and Butch Henderson, who made two hits and a run, also contributed to the triumph.

Billy Naylor, Flashes catcher, came in as relief hurler in the top of the fifth with the bases loaded and retired the Realtor side. He bounded back in the sixth to hold the opposition scoreless and preserve the Flashes' one-run lead.

Adult Volleyball and Softball Programs All Set at Park Now

Volleyball will start in earnest at 6 p. m. (today) Wednesday at the community park on Millikan Ave. as the adult recreation program begins to gather momentum.

Director Fred Domenico said seven or eight men had signified their intention of going to the park to play volleyball and then added "but there's room for a lot more."

One court is ready for use and another can be set up if there is need for it, Domenico said.

"They can play as long as they want to, and we hope there will be others coming to take the places of those who leave. . . they could get in as much as two hours of good exercise before dark," Domenico commented.

SOFTBALL, for both the girls and the men, will get under way next Monday at the park.

Four teams for girls already have been organized and, Domenico said, "we'd like to have at least two more."

A men's league of eight teams also is ready to go Monday, too.

Something new was added today to the park recreation program: it's tetherball, a game for two to play.

Domenico said two poles for the game have been set up. An inflated ball, similar to volleyball, is "tethered" to the top of each pole. The object of the players is to hit the ball to wrap the "tether" around the pole. He said the game has been gaining in popularity.

Palmer, Bolt In Akron Open

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Masters champion Arnold Palmer and Tommy Bolt, U. S. Open king, lead the list of top golfers shooting for the big prize in the $22,000 Rubber City Open starting Thursday.

Both are former tournament winners here. Palmer won it last year, defeating Doug Ford on the sixth hole of a sudden death playoff. Both had finished the regulation four rounds at 272.

Bolt won the first big Rubber City Open in 1954 with a 265 total, which still stands as the tournament record.

The Firestone Country Club plays to a par of 35-36-71. Over 6,645 yards.

Almost all the winners of 1958 tournaments will be here for the tournament which ends Sunday.

Sedgman Holds Lead in Tourney

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Frank Sedgman of Australia holds the singles lead in the $15,000 Masters Round Robin Pro Tennis Tournament.

Sedgman had a tough fight Tuesday night to overcome Rex Hartwig, 2-6, 8-6, 6-0.

In the feature match, Pancho Gonzales played brilliant tennis to beat little Ken Rosewall 10-8, 0-6, 12-10.

Sedgman now has a 3-0 record. Gonzales is 2-1 and Pancho Segura is a big threat with 2-0. Rosewall is 1-1.

Fayette Fisherman Nabs Soft-Shell

Turtles? That's right. Turtles.

Just ask Bob Jenkins of 401 E. Point St. He pulled two big soft-shells out of Rattlesnake Creek, and together they weigh 24 1/2 pounds. Using crawdads and shrimp, Jenkins said he wasn't looking for the slow-moving amphibians, but that he was too glad to take 'em when they came along.

Pulled them in with a rod and reel, too — quite a trick with a beast that large.

Coach Frank McGuire's North Carolina basketball teams have won 107 and lost 43 games. The Tar Heels won all 32 games in 1956-57.

A X Y D L B A A X R

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Keep alert—chew gum

Avoid traffic jitters and driving drowsiness. Chew gum while you're behind the wheel. Chewing helps relieve strain and tension—helps keep you feeling fresh and alert for safer driving. Chew any brand of gum you like but chew while you drive. Naturally, we recommend refreshing, delicious Wrigley's Spearmint Gum—for lively, satisfying flavor and real chewing enjoyment.
